

This will be much more fun than the X-factor..

Hello - Its Julie here

Do you remember a while ago I sent you an email telling you about a singing workshop in Hertford?

Well it was a huge success and Tim (A Natural Health customer and very talented man who also composed my podcast music) has decided to run another singing workshop in Hertford on Sat 18th September from 10.30 – 4.00 at the Quaker rooms (Railway Street Hertford)

His singing workshop is called 'Sing Your Heart Out!' – and it's going to be a mixture of Gospel music as well the African and world songs

It will be a truly exciting, uplifting and rewarding day.

As before the workshop is for absolutely everyone from total beginners to seasoned pros - so if you've ever wanted to sing now's your chance!

Tim assures me that last time everyone left with a huge smile and bursting with the confidence and joy that singing out loud brings.

Due to room space there are only 25 spaces available and 18 have already been booked up so there are just 7 places left - so best to get in quick.

Here's his website for more info, there is also a great video clip of the last workshop for you to have a look at too:

Just drop him a line with any questions or if you would like to book – Tim's number is:

07843 487 394

Or email Tim at:

tim@talking-music.co.uk

I hope this is of interest, it is a bit of an unusual email for me to send you but we got such a good response last time and everyone loved it, so I thought I'd let you know about this one too!

Best wishes

Julie

PS Here's the website link again for Tim's singing workshop and a video of the last one :
